

Resources for Businesses Affected by COVID-19

The CARES Act

This summary includes information for both individuals and businesses that have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Included in this summary is an overview of:

- The Paycheck Protection Program – The application process opens on April 3, 2020 for small businesses and sole proprietors; for independent contractors and self-employed individuals, the applications open on April 10, 2020.
- Emergency EIDL Grants
- Expansion of Unemployment Insurance Benefits
- Tax-Related Provisions for Businesses
- Recovery Rebate for Individuals
- Charitable Deductions for Individuals

SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans

Pennsylvania and Maryland businesses will now be able to apply for low-interest loans through the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). This summary provides information on the loan application process.

Maryland Funding

In this summary, you will find information about the new relief funding programs available in Maryland for small businesses and nonprofits announced by Governor Hogan.

Families First Coronavirus Response Act

In this summary of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act, you will find information about the available payroll tax credits, the Emergency Family and Medical Leave Expansion Act, and the Emergency Paid Sick Leave Act.